FOR PRESIDENT,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

For the Boston Morning Post.

CALUMNY REFUTED.

Mr Editor—An article signed "D." appeared in the Post of Saturday, Dec. 5th, containing certain statements and insinuations which seem to call for a reply, which reply will, of course, find admission into your columns.

My acquaintance with one of the individuals, (the Hon. Heman Lincoln,) whose character and conduct are assailed in that article, and who are substantially accused of falsehood and dishonesty, enables me to reply, without hesitation, that there could not be found in Massachusetts another individual whose private and public conduct, and whose principles are farther removed from suspicion, and who is more universally and deservedly respected. Slånder recoilsfrom him, as the viper from the file which it vainly attempted to injure with its poisonous tooth; and I am sure that a vast majority of your readers must have regarded the imputations in the article referred to as grossly unjust.

Who is the Heman Lincoln accused by "D." of "plundering the people's treasury?" He is Treasurer of the General Convention of Babtists united in the cause of Missions,—a Society which contributes some $40,000 to $50,000 per year to that benevolent object, which has under its care 25 mission stations, more than 150 missionaries and teachers, 5 printing presses, and some 600 or 700 scholars, and whose field of action includes the continents of Asia, Africa, Europe and America; and as Treasurer Mr L. has hitherto devoted his whole time and thoughts to the discharge of his official duties gratuitously. Unrecompensed save by his own conscience, and the general respect of good men. He is one whom the people of Massachusetts have placed in office as Representative and Senator, and whom all good men admire and esteem.

Such is the man whom "D." would charge with abusing the confidence and generosity of the General Government, and perverting its funds to the promotion of "sectarian purposes," and to "support in idleness well-dressed mendicants." "D." could not have made a more unfortunate selection of an object for his calumny.

Now for a reply to the charge of plundering the people's treasury under false pretences.

The U. S. statute of 1819, chapter 208, authorizes the President of the United States to expend the annual sum of $10,000 for the instruction of Indians, in the arts and sciences of civilized life; and among the things to be taught are named, "reading, writing, arithmetic, and that mode of agriculture suited to their condition." In pursuance of this act of Congress, President Jackson, in 1834, exercising that power of selection which the law allows, appropriated the sum of $4,066.67 to the support of certain schools established among the Indians by the Baptist Convention, of which Heman Lincoln is Treasurer—which appropriation was duly reported to Congress. Will "D" undertake to complain of Jackson's "sectarianism," in making such an appropriation? The answer is, that the President must have refused all appropriation, if he had made none except for schools not established among the Indians by some religious denomination.

An examination of the report of the Baptist Convention will show "D" that the money thus "plundered" was scrupulously applied, according to law, and that this wicked and swindling Treasurer and Society expended for the same noble object the further sum of $6466.84, contributed by the Baptists themselves;—thus showing that Government bestows but a small fraction of the sum needed to maintain existing schools. These schools are to be found in New York, North Carolina, Michigan, and the Indian country west of the Mississippi; among the Cherokees, Tonawandas, Shawanoes, Delawares, Otoes, Omahas, Potawatamies, Otawas, Creeks, and Choctaws. There are more than thirteen schools, about thirty-six teachers and missionaries, and more than 200 pupils; and to accommodate and entertain these "well dressed mendicants," there are log-houses and other buildings, printing presses, &c. There are day schools, and evening schools, and Sunday schools, and farm schools, in which is taught agriculture. Some of these "well dressed mendicants" teach a school every day in the week, preach three sermons every Sunday, are engaged in translating books into the native languages, and besides all this, superintend the publication of the needful school books, &c—surrounded, meantime, by all the luxuries of log huts, frontier wilderness, and danger, and every discouragement that can impede benevolent effort.

The annual reports of these things are printed, and can be obtained; and "D," by one hour,s reading, would be led to confess that langaage was never more abused, than when he spoke of laborers on the Indian stations by the words which I have quoted.

Now let it be understood that this whole expenditure is made before the reception of a dollar from the United States, by the convention itself—that the convention then reports its doings to Government, and solicits a portion of the public appropriation—and it is a question entirely of the President's discretion (through his agents) to allow or deny any grant whatsoever; so that the Government itself is responsible if there has been misappropriation or mal-application—and "D" must censure the President if the people's money has been wasted.

I am ashamed that any American could be found so utterly ignorant, as "D" by his own confession appears to be, of the benevolent operations of the day. I am ashamed that any person so ignorant should dare to expose his want of information in a public newspaper, as "D" has done, and so impudent as to accompany the exposure of his ignorance with an assault upon men of long-tried and well-known excellence. Who does not know that the Baptist denomination in this country has ever been devoted to the principles of liberty and republicanism, and that in carrying into effect the kind intention of our government towards the Indians, its members have ever secured the friendship and confidence of the government and of the public?

Let "D" read the printed report of the convention, and his heart will beat with pleasure as he reads the affecting account of Indian villages petitioning for teachers, and building school-houses at their own expense, and crowding to be taught in their own native dialects, from books composed by Baptist teachers and printed at the expense of the convention—he will there see that aged chiefs, whose eyes have grown dim with years, and young children who thirst after knowledge, unite in the new and delightful task of study, and exult in the acquisition of the, to them, strange power of reading and writing; and if his soul can be moved by pictures of moral grandeur and moral loveliness, he will thrill over the story of self-denying, self-sacrificing, all-endearing benevolence—and of generous, persevering efforts on the part of good men to make some little atonement to the red-men for the bitter wrongs inflicted upon their fathers in olden times. Such persons are "the well-dressed mendicants" of your correspondent. The reading of one single hour, as I said before, would bring "D" (if he have a heart) to the ready confession, that in his article he has been guilty of an undeserved and abusive assault upon a good cause, and upon virtuous men.

One word, Mr. Editor, upon the political wisdom of such calumnies as those of "D." The Baptist denomination in the United States, numbers several million members, who have united in selecting Mr. Lincoln for a long series of years, as their official organ, and who delight to do him honor as one of the best of men. When these millions of Americans find their long known and beloved officer thus calumniously assailed in a political paper—they cannot but feel themselves, universally, insulted and abused—and unless they are differently constituted from most men, they will be very likely to draw unfavorable inferences from the conduct of the writers and editors of the assailing party to the party itself. But I speak not from political motives. I take the high ground of moral principle, and of legal rights, and standing there, charge upon your correspondent "D," gross injustice in having accused of such vile misconduct individuals and associations whose transactions have been open, public, honorable, and praiseworthy. I hope that the calumniator will be sufficiently honorable to retract his accusations.

As to the other individual and Society alluded to by "D," I have not spoken—because although his article is unjust to them, I have not documents at hand to support my assertions.

Important!
TO PERSONS SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS.
To the Editor of the Inquirer:
SIR—On the principles inculcated by the great and good Dr Franklin, to diffuse as widely as possible every means in our power to mitigate or soften the afflictions of suffering humanity, I feel it incumbent upon me to make known through the medium of your useful paper that on reading therein an advertisement of Dr Jebb's Liniment, for the cure of RHEUMATISM, I was forcibly impressed with a belief that it was calculated to remove the severe Rheumatic Affection to which I had been for seven or eight years subjected, sometimes almost depriving me of the use of my limbs. I accordingly procured a Bottle, and before I had used the whole of it, found very sensible relief. This increased my confidence in it, and led me to obtain another bottle, the use of which has completely removed the swellings and pains of my limbs, together with the cramp, and restored them to their wonted vigor.
I am respectfully yours,
GEORGE TAYLOR, JR.
Hempstead, L. I., March 24th.
Persons suffering from the above complaints, and in despair of a cure from the failure of the various remedies they have used, are invited to make trial of this long and celebrated medicine, which has in years passed cured and relieved, as it is now doing, thousands who had despaired of relief. Nothing but a fair trial can give an adequate idea of its unrivalled excellence. It is also one of the best applications known for stiffness of the joints, numbness, sprains and chilblains.

STENOGRAPHIC GLIMPSES OF CONGRESS.

Washington Dec. 7th, 1835.

"We have met the enemy, and they are ours!"—Col. James K. Polk, of Tennessee, was elected Speaker of the House on the first ballot, by a majority of thirty nine votes! Messrs Blair and Rives, Editors of the Globe, were elected Printers for the 24th Congress, likewise on the first ballot, by a majority of forty-three votes; and Mr Franklin was re-elected Clerk of the House (by Resolution) unanimously. This triple triumph furnishes its own commentary, and needs no gloss of mine.

Mr Harden of Ky. was observed to decline voting on the occasion.

After the House was called to order by the Clerk, Mr Patton of Va. made a motion to choose the Speaker by a viva voce vote, the favorite mode of Virginia. This produced a discussion which continued one hour, viz. till one o'clock, terminating in rejection.

The ghost of the motion being laid, the House proceeded to ballot for a Speaker; in half an hour Col. Polk was declared to be duly elected; in five minutes more he had been waited on in his seat, and conducted to the Chair by Cols. Johnson and Jarvis, and delivered a brief, pertinent, and eloquent address to the House.

Col. Polk has all the requisites for his high station: He is cool, collected, dispassionate, firm, prompt, and decisive. He will make an excellent, as well as popular, Speaker; and though the opposition may attempt to try his temper, they will not be able to turn its edge.

Mr. Patton renewed his viva voce motion for the election of Printers of the House, after the three sets of candidates had been nominated according to rule; but finding it met with renewed opposition he withdrew it, saying he would not offer it again.

Before proceeding to ballot for Printers, considerable discussion took place on a motion made by Mr. Whittlesey to make the Printers give bonds; but from his argument he brought us to the conclusion that the "CANDIDATES" for printing must give bonds before they were qualified to be chosen! This matter was set right by some other member, who suggested that the time for the bonds to be given was after the printers were elected.

Mr. Robertson of Va. successor I believe to Mr. Ex Speaker Stevenson, thought it best to have no printer chosen, but to job out the business of the House—(to the lowest jobber I suppose!) and he offered a [blank] Resolution to have [blank] documents printed, from time to time," time without end! But there was no "Amen" as a response to his wisdom and economical novelty.

Mr Mann moved the adoption of the Rules of the last House (23d Congress) for the government of the present.

Mr Adams said he should propose an amendment after the 57th Rule, "That within thirty days after the commencement of each session, the Appropriation Bills should be reported, (or reasons why they should not. &c.) in order to secure an early passage of these important bills.

This early movement of Mr Adams, I trust, truly indicates where his country shall find him in her hour of need—at the post of duty. There can be no doubt, I think, but he will sustain the administration in the measures it may recommend relative to France.

Mr Mann moved to except the 57th Rule, that Mr Adams's amendment might take place, when put in form, and become a part of it.

Mr Reynolds, of Ill., moved to except Rules 8, 9 and 10. Mercer excepted to this course of "exception." Mann agrees to except Rules 9, 10 and 57.

An adjournment was moved, and failed.

The Rules are finally adopted, exceptionally. Discussion renewed about printer's bonds, but Mr Whittlesey withdrew his motion to "reconsider the vote to proceed to the choice of a printer," and thus this wrong-end-foremost debate ended. He should have recollected what the Cook's Oracle saith about dressing fish—"first catch your salmon, and then," &c.—first choose your printer, and then cook and bond him according to the resolution of 1829, or any other you choose to make.

Next followed the ballot for printers; messages were exchanged between the Senate and House; the choice of Chaplain and Sergeant at Arms were postponed till to-morrow.

Gen. Ward moved that when the House adjourn, it adjourn to 12 o'clock to-morrow; and it adjourned accordingly about 4 o'clock.

The sudden and melancholy death of Senator Smith, of Conn., produced a deep sensation in the city yesterday—but to-day, such has been the extraordinary excitement, he has scarcely been called to mind by the busy multitude, and the ambitious world. His obsequies will take place on Wednesday, in the usual manner. I hope we shall have no Lawrences on the occasion—the discomfiture of the opposition, I think, will now rather bring them to their senses, instead of driving their deluded tools mad.

I am inclined to think Gov. Tomlinson will obey instructions, if indeed he may require them; but I hardly think they will be found necessary. Old Connecticut I trust, will now wheel entirely into the ranks of the administration, as we shall doubtless soon have a Senator to fill the present vacancy.

I could not learn that the Senate did any business after their organization, but to send the ladies, Heaven bless them! nearer Heaven—by elevating them to the gallery!

REIS EFFENDI.

A friend to the editor of the Greenfield Mercury has copied from the collections of the Historical Society in this City, an account of a battle between a Mr. Jona. Hawks, of Deerfield, and a party of rattle snakes, which took place sometime in the last century, and resulted in the death of 34 of the snakes. Mr. Hawks's weapon was a club.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

What the opposition can find to carp at in this communication from our National Executive, breathing as it does in every line the most elevated sentiments of patriotism, we cannot anticipate. The parental and wise admonition with which it opens, warning us of the great dangers to be guarded against in the height of power and prosperity to which we have already attained, displays that anxious and fervent solicitude for the continued glory and happiness of our country, which has always been the strongest feeling in the breast of our venerable Chief Magistrate. Our Foreign Relations with all powers except France, are upon an amicable footing. The United States are now waiting for a new proposition from England relative to the Boundary Question, which has been invited, and which it is believed will lead to a satisfactory settlement of the controversy. In all our domestic relations the nation is pursuing an unprecedented career of success, as the reports from the different Departments show. In the face of such evidence of the fidelity and purity of purpose with which the government has been administered, what can faction find to vent its spleen upon? A few uneasy and reckless politicians may endeavor to blacken the character and misrepresent the motives of ANDREW JACKSON, but the knowledge of the people will defeat their efforts to injure him, while it promptly awards the praise due to a faithful and fearless public servant. We look with the utmost confidence for perfect co-operation in the popular branch of Congress with the Executive Department, and had it not been for the ill health of Mr Gayarre, the administration would have had a majority in the Senate—but whether the Senate sustain the Executive measures or not, the people and the House of Representatives will, and while the Aristocratic branch is thus checked, it cannot do much harm to the country; the Whig combatants may make it for the session to come, as they have for several sessions past, their arena of contest for the Presidency, but their gladiatorial encounters will only bring degradation and disappointment upon themselves, while the choice of the Democracy whom they would destroy, is triumphantly borne over them all to the high destiny which awaits him.

Mr George Jones.—The London Journal of the 10th October, contains the annexed notice of this gentleman, who we believe is a native of Milton, Ms., and is well known to many of the inhabitants of this city.—We remember very well when we were a Sergeant in the Washington Light Infantry, (this is the nearest to a Military Chieftain that we ever came,) while that company was encamped upon a beautiful plot of ground opposite the mansion house of the late Barney Smith, Esq., Milton Hill, of conversing with Mr Jones upon the expediency of his embracing the histrionic profession—he said that he had resolved to try it—we endeavored to dissuade him from this determination, and used all the argumen's at our command to carry our point—but no—he observed that although it would be in violation of his parents' wishes, and the advice of his best friends, yet upon the stage he must go—and he went. He played for some time in this city, in minor characters, and afterwards at the Bowery, New York, in a more elevated line—from thence he went to England, where he first made himself advantageously known, as a London paper remarks, "by the enthusiastic reverence for "the memory of Shakspeare, which he manifested at a "late meeting at Stratford-upon-Avon; the monument "now in progress, to be erected in honor of the poet's "mother, having been the happy suggestion of a stranger, from whose deep study of the works of Shaks-"peare we may hope for success in the profession he "has chosen."

From the London Court Journal, Oct. 10.

Victoria.—We had hoped to have witnessed the first effort of Mr George Jones, from New York, who appeared here on Thursday as Hamlet. It is pleasant at least to record his success—so far as the applause of the audience could establish it—and the favorable opinion of one of his critics, who thus describes him—"Mr Jones is apparently about thirty years of age, with a good figure, rather above the middle size, an expressive countenance, and varying features. Had we not been informed by the bills of the land of his birth, we should scarcely have detected it by his accent. His voice is full and melodious." At the conclusion, Mr Jones came forward and delivered very nearly the following address with much feeling:—"Ladies and Gentlemen, how can the heart, flooded with gratitude, express its feelings? This is the first time an American citizen has ever appeared before a London audience in a similar part. Sheridan Knowles, on his return from America, said he had been received there like a brother. I too, when I return to my native land, shall both with my pen and voice record the cordial and enthusiastic reception I have met with." The tragedy is to be repeated on Monday.

The General Post Office.—The rapid improvement in the Post Office Department since Mr Kendall has had charge of that important branch of the government, is without a parallel in its history—the whole of its immense debt will be liquidated in April next, when its surplus revenue will allow the annual appropriation of $800,000 for the purpose of extending its facilities and public accommodations.

James Watson Webb made a speech in favor of Mr Webster, at the meeting in New York last week, in the course of which he endeavored to be very eloquent in urging his great claims "to the first office in the gift of a free people." He would have blushed, we think, if any one of his audience had referred him to his honest opinion of Mr Webster, before he had turned traitor for money.

From Para.—A letter from Maranham to the editors of the Journal of Commerce states that an English brig called the Creole, had been taken at the Pilot ground at Para, by the Indians, and all hands murdered except one man, and the vessel robbed and sunk.—Para is blockaded by a Brazillian squadron, being in possession of the Indians.

A rencontre took place about twenty five miles below Columbus, Ohio, not long since, in which one Indian was killed and another badly wounded—in revenge a party of Indians destroyed the whole family of a Mr. Brown, who were entirely innocent of any participation in the original quarrel.

Accident.—A sail boat containing thirty-three persons, on their way to see a prize fight, was capsized in the Delaware on Monday, and one or more persons drowned. The fight, which was to have been for $1000 a side, between McLean and Roberts, did not take place.

MEETING OF CONGRESS.

The Vice President called the Senate to order at 12 o'clock on Monday. Thirty-five members were present, and subsequently the oath of office was administered to nine additional members, viz—Messrs White, Hubbard, King, Clayton, Robinson, Ruggles, Wall, Knight and Davis. Resolutions were adopted in relation to the accommodation of Reporters and Ladies, and Messrs White and Knight appointed on the usual joint committee to wait on the President, &c.

The House was called to order by Mr Franklin, the Clerk of the last Congress, and two hundred and twenty-four members answered to their names. Mr Franklin then announced that the first business in order was the election of a Speaker, by ballot. Mr Patton moved the election be made viva voce—a debate ensued—but the ayes and noes not being called for by one fifth of the members present, the resolution was laid on the table without a count, and the House proceeded to the election. Upon the first ballot, 225 votes were given, as follows:—

For Mr James K. Polk	132
" John Bell	84
" Charles F. Mercer	3
" John Q. Adams	2
" Francis Granger	1
Blanks	3

The Hon. James K. Polk, of Tennessee, having received a majority of all the votes given, was declared duly elected Speaker of the 24th Congress, and being conducted to the Chair by Messrs Johnson, of Kentucky, and Jarvis, of Maine, returned his thanks for the honor conferred, in the following address:—

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives:

In accepting the high station to which I am called, by the voice of the assembled Representatives of the People, I am deeply impressed with the high distinction which is always conferred upon the presiding officer of this House, and with the weight of the responsibility which devolves upon him. Without experience in this place—called to preside over the deliberations of this House, I feel that I ought to invoke, in advance, the indulgent forbearance of its members, for any errors of judgment which may occur in the discharge of the severe duties which will devolve upon me. It shall be my pleasure to endeavor to administer the laws which may be adopted for the government of the House, justly and impartially towards its members, and with a view to the preservation of that order which is indispensable to our character as a body, and to the promotion of the public interests. To preserve the dignity of this body, and its high character before the country, so far as shall depend upon its presiding officer, will be objects of my deepest solicitude; and I am sure I shall have the co-operation and support of all its members, in the discharge of my duty, with a view to these objects.

I return to you, gentlemen, my sincere acknowledgments for this manifestation of your confidence, in electing me to this high station; and my ardent hope is, that our labors here may merit and receive the approbation of our constituents, and result in the advancement of the public good.

Mr Williams, of North Carolina, (the oldest member in the House,) administered the usual oath to the Speaker, when the latter qualified the members by States, and also the Territorial Delegates from Arkansas, Florida, and Michigan.

Mr Beardsley submitted a resolution, appointing Mr Walter S. Franklin, Clerk of the House, which was agreed to, and Mr F. was qualified by the Speaker.

Mr Coffee submitted a resolution, that the House proceed to the election of a Printer, which after a debate, upon the subject generally, was adopted with an amendment, requiring bonds and security as laid down in the joint resolutions of March, 1819, and February, 1829. Messrs Blair & Rives, Gales & Seaton, and Bradford & Learned, were nominated; the following was the result of the first ballot:—

Whole number of votes, 223—necessary to a choice, 112.

For Messrs Blair & Rives,	133
Gales & Seaton,	59
Bradford & Learned,	26
Duff Green,	2
Thurlow Weed,	1
Blanks,	2

Whereupon, Messrs Blair & Rives were declared duly elected Printers to the 24th Congress.

The usual resolutions of form were then passed, and Messrs Thomson, of Ohio, Mason, of Va., and Reed, of Mass. were appointed a committee on the part of the House, to wait upon the President.

Mistakes.—Patrick Carnes was brought before the Police Court, upon a charge of stealing a pair of pantaloons from a fellow boarder, and selling them to a clothes-broker in Brattle-street. "I acknowledge I took the trowsers," said Patrick; "but it was by mistake altogether and entirely. I thought they were my own all the same time." It turned out in the evidence, that Patrick was not only mistaken respecting the pants, but also mistook the chamber from which he mis-took them, for his own; and when he sold them he committed the still greater mistake of calling himself Peter Johnson, instead of his own sweet name of Patrick Carnes. The Court, believing that a man so liable to such troublesome mistakes was unfit to be at large, put him out of harm's-way. This is carrying out Fouche's maxim—"that a blunder is worse than a crime."

March of Intellect.—Two hundred men and boys turned out at Bangor, one evening last week, and mobbed an old horse—who submitted to Lynchism with a good grace. They had previously broken up the exhibition of a travelling Jim Crow.

☞ We have placed upon our First Page, a long article, which we hope will be the last upon the subject, relative to the money received by Messrs Heman Lincoln and Henry Hill from the U. S. for the benefit of Indians.

Rather Sewere.—The New York Herald says that "old Poins is only fit to represent Vicksburg in a convention of gamblers." Politically speaking, he has certainly been in the service of gamblers, the last few years.

☞ He is a Power-ful man who writes under the signature of "Fair Play" in the Centinel—yet we think he had better adjust his spectacles, record the sentences pronounced by his superior, and keep his nose out of other people's business.

Prudence.—The Manager of the Tremont has ceased to advertise with us—we don't blame him for economising as much as possible—his lean boxes show its necessity.

☞ Mr LEWIS JOSSELYN desires us to say that he has been announced as a candidate for the office of Alderman without his consent, and that he positively declines the nomination.

Mr John W. James has been nominated by a meeting of citizens held at the old Common Council Room for the Mayoralty.

Mr Freeman, who forged the name of Arthur Tappan, of New York, some time since, has been acquitted on the ground of insanity.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

The Grand Jury returned seventeen bills on Wednesday, fourteen being for larcenies from dwelling houses and pocket-picking. Upon their arraignment, the prisoners generally pleaded not guilty, with the exception of William M'Neiss, who broke into the store of Messrs Fullerton and Tufts, on the night of November 11, and stole some branding irons, pieces of lead, and a balance. He was detected coming out of the window, by the watch, who heard the ringing of glass, which he broke upon entering the store.—M'Neiss had been sent to the State Prison once before, for robbing Mr Fullerton's store. Plea, Guilty—to be sentenced on Saturday.

William Palmer, a minor, charged with picking the pocket of George W. Sevrance, in the Warren Theatre, and stealing therefrom a pocket book, containing $8.75, in bills and change, pleaded Guilty.—Sentence day as above.

John Chase, charged with committing an assault on Maria Kenney, replied to the indictment by saying—"I'm guilty so far as this: she gave me the lie, and I slapped her on one side of the face once." This admission was received as equivalent to a formal refusal to contend with Her Majesty the Commonwealth.—Sentence day as above.

Moses Hemmenway, charged with an assault on a Mrs Goddard, while she was in an infirm state of health, refused to contend.—Sentence day as above.

John Rogers, clothes-dealer, came into Court, out of curiosity, to witness the mysterious but edifying ceremonial of the arraignment of the violators of the law, and while thus inoffensively amused and instructed in the forms of court, some make-mischief officer whispered in the ear of Mr County Attorney, that he said Rogers was then and there in, within, and about said Municipal Court Room. Whereupon Mr Attorney informed His Honor the Judge, of the said Rogers' presence, and at the same time informed the Court, that the Grand Jury had found a bill against said Rogers; but as said Rogers might be taken by surprise by this piece of interesting information, he moved that he might be allowed time to plead, after arraignment. The indictment was then read, charging said Rogers with voting at the late State Election, in Ward 5, he the said Rogers, being an alien born, and not a naturalized citizen of the United States. Rogers promptly pleaded Guilty.

N.B.—Thursday's Proceedings are crowded out of this morning's paper, by more important matter, but will appear to-morrow.

The Charleston papers contain the Comptroller General's Report of the finances of the State of South Carolina, which are in a highly flourishing condition. The income has exceeded the expenditure by nearly $40,000 and would have amounted to $60,000, if the repairs of the College had not absorbed $20,000. The sum of $110,000 has been received in bonuses from the Bank of Charleston, the State Bank, the Bank of South Carolina, and the Commercial Bank at Columbia. This has amounted to more than one fourth of the income of the last fiscal year. Deducting this amount from the receipts into the Treasury, the excess of income over expenditure, amounting to between 50 and 60 thousand dollars would, as the Comptroller remarks, pay the interest on one million of dollars, if the State should be disposed to borrow that amount for any public object.—N. Y. Gaz.

Distressing Accident.—We learn from Briggs Bulletin that on Saturday last, four men and a boy, viz: Capt. Obadiah Rich, Joseph S. Paine, Snow Rich, F. A. Snow, and a boy that lived with Capt. Rich, were drowned by the upsetting of a boat in going from Provincetown to Truro, Cape Cod.

Burglary.—On Wednesday night the store of Messrs Thomas Tarbell & Co. 55 Water street, was entered from the rear, by boring off a portion of the window shutter, and goods consisting of silks, broadcloths, &c. were stolen to considerable amount.

The Buffalo College, whose munificent endowment by private donations of citizens of that place, has astonished every body in these mercenary times—turns out after all to be an appendage to the Synod of the Presbyterian church.

The lad who was run over by an engine, a week or two since, named Palmer, died at the Hospital yesterday.

☞ It is said that a petition will be gotton up for the release of Geo. B. Cheever, to be presented to the Governor and Council on Tuesday next.

☞ Our readers will be pleased to perceive that we are again in correspondence with REIS EFFENDI.

IMPORTANT FOR BOOTS AND SHOES,—CHAISE AND HARNESS.—Lincoln's Leather Preserver, renewing, softening, preserving, and when used in proper quantities, rendering the leather water proof. It prevents the drying and cracking—gives a softness and elasticity to the leather—renders it more durable, as well as more agreeable and safe to those who would avoid wet feet—boots, to which this article has been applied, are so much more durable than others, that its use is an important point of economy.

Being now made in large quantities, its price is very reasonable, and ample discounts are made to venders—paste blacking appears to advantage over leather thus prepared.

This article is sold wholesale and retail at No 13 Elm street, by GEORGE F. R. WADLEIGH, Agent for the Manufacturer.

Also, for sale as above, Lincoln's Paste Blacking, a prime article, excelled by no other invention for making leather soft and giving it a beautiful black lustre. eop s2m o21

BOSTON ACADEMY
PENMANSHIP AND BOOK-KEEPING,
No. 2 Amory Hall.
(Corner of Washington and West streets.)

MESSRS. RICHARDSON & STRATTON, having associated themselves in business, for the purpose of instruction in Penmanship, Book Keeping and Arithmetic, beg leave to offer the citizens of Boston and the public generally a prospectus of the course pursued by them.

PENMANSHIP.

Messrs Richardson & Stratton, are both so well known to the Boston public, as teachers of Penmanship, and have taught that art with so much success in this city, that it will perhaps be unnecessary to say any thing further of their system of instruction, the merits of which are so universally acknowledged. For the information, however, of persons who reside at a distance, and may be desirous of being taught the above branches, they beg leave to add, that the system is simple and natural, and will readily remove that stiffness of the arm and fingers which is so embarrassing, and which other professors have heretofore almost entirely failed to accomplish.

BOOK-KEEPING.

In the department of Book-Keeping, Messrs. R. & S. have had much personal experience, and have also derived valuable information from several eminent merchants of this city, which enables them to combine the elementary instructions of the master, with the practical improvements of the merchant. They propose to initiate young gentlemen, who are about entering upon Commercial Business, not to teach merchants. They do not pretend to have made any new inventions or discoveries, but will, in all cases follow the most approved precedents of mercantile experience, and give their pupils such practice, as will enable them, when they arrive at the Counting house, to transact business with precision and despatch.

Terms in the above branches may be known by application at their room.

Classes in session morning, afternoon and evening.

ELEGANT ENGLISH PERFUMERY.—JAS. & EDWARD ATKINSON, Perfumers, 24 Old Bond st, corner of Burlington Gardens, London, have supplied their Agent, J. A. DICKSON, 86 Cornhill, formerly Market street, with a valuable quantity of the following articles, which have been generally approved—

FASHIONABLE SOAPS.

White Hands.—Atkinson's Almond Soap—made from the purest Oil of Almonds—uniting all the softening qualities of the Almond with the detergency of the common Alkaline Soap.

Chapped Hands.—Camphor Soap—J. & E. E. A. recommend this Soap as containing a greater quantity of Camphor than has hitherto been considered practicable. It possesses all the cooling and other good qualities of that well known article.

For Family Use—Atkinson's old brown Windsor Soap.

Ambrosial Soap—It is made from pure vegetable oil, and is equally mild as the almond, only differing from it in perfume and color—the latter being a light brown, and the perfume a combination of those most generally approved.

The above, with every other new and fashionsble Soap and Shaving Cakes, are always ready for exportation, and an allowance is always made on taking one or more dozen.

Atkinson's Concentrated Essence of Lavender—prepared four times the strength of the best Lavender Water, freed from all the empyreuma of the spirit, and unsophisticated with the sickly admixture of musk, ambergris, &c. The superiority of this article to Lavender Water is, that it is much more powerful and fragrant—it is also much cheaper, as there is four times more perfume of the Essence for the money, than in the best Lavender water in use.

Atkinson's Vegetable Dye—changes red or grey hair on the head, or whiskers to an auburn or black, so permanent that neither washing, perspiration, nor any other cause can in the least affect it.

Bear's Grease, for the growth of Hair—This article is procured from the animal in its native climate, it being known to possess more vivifying properties when so procured, than when the animal is in a domesticated state. It is ot the finest quality, and is sent out without any admixture, except a little perfume to keep it sweet—and for the growth of hair it is no doubt far superior to any thing hitherto known. Also for dressing the hair it is very pleasant and useful—cleansing the head from dandriff, and making the hair beautifully soft and glossy.

Atkinson's Curling Fluid, or Vegetable Hair Oil—for dressing the Hair This article has been very generally patronised for the last twenty years—and is considered an indispensable appendage to the toilet—it is a most excellent article for dressing the hair, making it, however, harsh, soft and glossy as silk—and keeping it in curl in exercise or damp weather.

Almond Shaving Paste—In very neat portable pots; a very elegant and excellent preparation for shaving.

Milk of Almonds—The most elegant and efficacious cosmetic hiherto introduced. It is a great improvement to what has long been known as Milk of Roses. It removes freckles, redness, roughness, &c. from the skin, and gives it a brilliant clearness and whiteness.

Atkinson's Depilatory—For removing superfluous Hair on the Face, Neck or Arms, with equal certainty and safety, leaving the skin softer and whiter than before the application.

Hudson's Botanic Tooth Powder and Tincture.—These Dentrifices, which have so much attracted the attention of the Medical Profession, are remedies for all disorders of the mouth; they not merely cleanse and beautify the Teoth, but preserve them from decay. They make the Teeth white, fasten such as are loose, eradicate the scurvy and tartar from the gums, leaving them firm and of a healthy redness, and if used regularly will supersede the necessity of a Dentist. They are entirely free of acid, and so innocent that a child may take the contents of a box of the Powder; and the Tincture is an excellent stomachic, and a certain remedy for the Toothache.

Hudson's Tooth Brushes—in sets of three—made on scientific principles, and warranted in bone and ivory.

Alla Ad Deen Mahomed's Dye—for changing the hair on the head, eyebrows or whiskers, to a permanent brown or black, by one application, without staining the skin or the finest linen.

Caution—Every article of James and Edward Atkinson's manufacture has their names and address distinct on the label, also—a small address stamp, similar to a patent medicine stamp, printed in colors. s9

VEGETABLE EXTRACT.—This is the most valuable remedy yet discovered for the cure of Throat Distemper, or Malignant, Putrid, Ulcerated Sore throat—Scarlet Fever—Canker Rash—Canker in the Mouth, Throat and Bowels—Diarrhea—Dyssentery—Sore Mouth of Nursing Women—and the Acred Humors of Teeting Children—in short, for almost all the affections of the Mucus Membrane of the Mouth, Throat and Alimentary Canal. These diseases are acknowledged by all Physicians to be of the most severe and obstinate character, and have long baffled their skill and research. The discovery, therefore, of an effectual remedy for them, particularly for the various forms of Scarlet Fever, must be considered by every true philanthropist as an invaluable desideratum. As a common and perfectly safe family medicine, it will be found of inestimable value in cases of common Sore Throats and Colds—disordered state of the Stomach and Bowels—such as habitual Costiveness—Indigestion—Flatulency—Nausea and Vomiting. Also, in cases of weakness arising from Fever and all debilitating diseases—such as Consumption, &c—it will be found very beneficial as a cathartic and altrative, as it neither causes debility, nor does it, as is the case with the operation of most medicine, so readily dispose one to take cold.

The Vegetable Extract has now been some time before the public, and its great powers justly tested. Hundreds of individuals have successfully tried it, and several eminent Physicians are in the almost daily use of it in their practice, who are truly astonished at its great curative qualities, and are ready to give their testimony in favor of its efficiency and power. There now remains but one obstacle in the way of its very general use, and that is, the price. The proprietors, being desirous to obviate this difficulty, have therefore determined to reduce the price to 62½ cents per bottle, for one year, which barely remunerates for the great expense of preparing the article—this will bring it within the means of every person, so that no one need suffer for the want of it—and the poor man be able to obtain it for himself and family, as well as the rich.

N. B. Should any one still feel scrupulous of what is here stated, relative to the Vegetable Extract, and will call on one of the proprietors, No 118 State street, Boston, besides the recommendations which will accompany each bottle, other abundant and most satisfactory evidence will be exhibited respecting it.

BOSTON TRUSS MANUFACTORY.—J. W. PHELPS—successor to BEATH & FOSTER—would inform the public that he will continue to manufacture the different kinds of Trusses made by Messrs Beath & Foster, with improvements on the same. Having had occasion during the past season for applying many of these instruments to some of the most difficult and intricate cases of Hernia, the undersigned feels confident that no cases, however difficult, if applied to by him, will pass without receiving the most satisfactory relief. As the safety and comfort of the ruptured patient greatly depends upon the adaptation of a truss to the particular rupture it is inteaded to support, it necessarily follows that much care should be taken in selecting such a truss as is suited to the particular case. To obviate the frequent complaints made of the inefficiency of trusses, the undersigned keeps for sale an extensive assortment of the best quality, and fitted on with peculiar care.

Among the great variety of trusses, made and kept on hand, are—patent elastic spring trusses with spring pads—improved hinge and pivot do in ball and socket joints—umbilical prolapses and suspensary trusses—Hull's double and single do—Philadelphia India rubber truss—Bateman's, Marsh's, and Shaker's do—Reed's spiral spring truss, N. TO THE PUBLIC.—THOMSONIAN INFIRMARY—at No. 23 Harvard street. (Harvard street leads from Front street, and is opposite No. 499 Washington street Boston.)

The Proprietor of this Infirmary would respectfully announce to his friends and the community at large, that he has succeeded Dr Andrew Watkins in the foregoing and well known popular establishment. And he would now make his grateful acknowledgments for the patronage he has already received during the short time he has been there, and would solicit the continuance of the same from the numerous frequenters of this institution.

Long experience in the theory and practice of the Botanic System of Medicine has rendered him perfectly familiar with the administration of these remedies; and the decided success he has met with in many cases which were extremely doubtful and dangerous, enables him with confidence to assert, that they are both safe and powerful in their operation on the human frame, and will, beyond all dispute, expel all maladies which flesh is heir to, from the human system, (as millions of the people of the United States can testify,) provided application be made in season. The Infirmary will be conducted on pure Thomsonian principles, and under the patronage and direction of Dr Samuel Thomson, the venerable founder of the system, who, when in the city, makes this establishment his home.

Dr James Howarth, of the firm of James Howarth & Co., who is one of the general agents of Dr Thomson for this part of the country, also resides at the Infirmary, and will render his aid and assistance when necessary in cases of difficulty The experience this gentleman has had in administering Thomsonian Medicine to the sick has rendered him perfectly conversant with the Botanic System of Practice. It is unnecessary to detail, in an advertisement, his qualifications, being well known in Andover and Boston and many other places in New-England. The public are already acquainted with them. It may be added, however, that he is a thorough Thomsonian, and a perfect disciplinarian both in its theory and practice.

The above establishment has, since it has been relinquished by the former occupant, been partially refitted, and will now afford every convenience for the comfort of invalids. It is pleasantly and elligibly situated in a central and retired part of the city; and is free from the noise and bustle which is always very offensive and injurious to the sick. Faithful and experienced nurses will likewise afford their untiring attendance on the sick. Pure Thomsonian medicine, together with Family Rights, Robinson's Lecture, and all other books relating to the system, constantly for sale at the Infirmary on moderate terms.

MAN'S GREATEST AND BEST EARTHLY TREASURE—HEALTH PRESERVED—OR LOST, RESTORED.—SEARS'S AMERICAN HYGIENE VEGETABLE RENOVATING PILLS, are now offered, for the benefit of the public, by the Author, under an honest persuasion, that the certificates of their efficacy and effects; and the references and testimony respecting his own reputation and character, will secure for them public confidence. They have been the result of much research and experiment, occasioned by unusual sufferings from Dyspepsia and a diseased liver for 30 years. During a considerable part of this period, it has been to me an object of anxious solicitude, to discover some preparation of medicine better calculated to relieve me of my sufferings, than any I had heretofore used. And after many experiments in Materia Medica; and, among the vegetables of our country, I have succeeded in preparing a medicine, purely and entirely vegetable, which does in an eminent degree, answer that important and desirable object. Their effect is to excite and sustain a natural peristaltic action in the stomach and intestines, and to produce a discharge from them of all the morbid and bilious matter which they contain; and also to remove biliary obstructions, and promote and sustain the natural secretions of the liver. Hence they are peculiarly efficacious in curing all diseases, originating from a disordered state of the stomach and bowels: such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Bilious Cholic, Nervous and Sick Headache, Hypocondria, Yellow and Black Jaundice, Cholera Morbus, Cutaneous Eruptions, Erysipelas, Heartburn, Sourness of Stomach, and General Debility. Their efficacy has been fairly and abundantly tested by my own experience and that of many others. They may, with perfect safety, be taken by both sexes, of all ages, in cases of indisposition; and they are peculiarly effectual in liver complaints. In offering them to the public, I pledge my reputation and character, that a perfect trial of their effects will satisfy them of their superior excellency. In regard to my reputation and character, I have permission to refer to the Right Rev Bishop Onderdonk and the Rev Dr Spring, of New York; and I would also present the two following certificates from the Hon John W. Taylor, and the Hon Judge S. Young, of Ballston Spa, whose characters are well known to the public:—

"I certify that I have been well acquainted with William Sears, now of the village of Ballston Spa, for more than thirty years. He has through life maintained a fair reputation. His character for truth and general integrity stands high. Indeed I have never heard it impeached. JOHN W. TAYLOR.

Ballston Spa, Oct. 6th, 1834."

"I have known Mr William Sears for more than thirty years, having resided most of that time in the same town with him, and during that period he has sustained a character without reproach. S. YOUNG.

Oct 8, 1334."

Extract from a certificate of Mr James Comstock, editor of the Ballston Spa Gazette—"For several years past Mrs Comstock has been afflicted with an unusually obstinate Dyspepsia, attended with a great degree of acidity of the stomach, and redundancy of bile. For several months past she has taken Sears's A. H. V. Renovating Pills, and has experienced more benefit from them than she has ever received from any medicine. I can with confidence recommend them to the public JAS. COMSTOCK."

Extract from a certificate of Mrs Powel, wife of the Hon. Judge Powel, of Saratoga county—"For many years past I have been afflicted with the symptoms of a liver complaint, which have frequently been attended with a pain in my side, so severe as to confine me. About three months since I commenced taking Sears's A. H. V. Renovating Pills, which have greatly relieved me, and rendered unnecessary the use of any other medicine. I do highly esteem them, and recommend them to all who are afflicted as I have been, with a liver complaint. ANN POWEL.

Milton, Oct. 3, 1834."

DEAFNESS.

A YORK paper sayeth, that a remedy for the restoration of hearing and eye-sight, is to be had of Doctor Green, Bethlehem, Pa.

It proves effectual when the affliction is caused by nervous weakness, as the remedy gives health and strength to the whole nervous system.

Now—according to the Doctor's practice and principles, that MUCH OF THE ART OF PHYSICK CONSISTS IN KNOWING WHEN NOT TO GIVE IT.

The restoration of hearing is brought about without giving any Physic!—without giving any medicine!—as hath been experienced in the editor's own family, as well as in the families of many of his neighbors also. Therefore, and in part return for such great benefits received, we make the above known for the good of our fellow creatures in similar distress.

For a fee of Five Dollars, assistance is sent for one person—for a fee of Ten Dollars, assistance is sent for four or five persons, per mail, free of postage.

And, in case other sickness besides deafness and loss of eyesight happening, help is sent for such sickness without any charge.

The fee pays for all and every help sent to families, from time to time.

This is considered a praiseworthy plan—and, in conclusion it will, no doubt, be very satisfactory for people to know that the assistance to be sent is not to be applied to the ears—nor the eyes.

NOT AT ALL.

Consequently, no danger whatever can happen to them—no—none whatever.

N. B. It may not be improper to state, that during the time people are using his assistance and helping themselves to restore and to recover their hearing, their eye-sight, and their health again,

They can follow their customary business;
They can live as usual;
And they can also eat and drink what tastes best.

COMPLIMENTARY.

[From the Old to the New World.]

In Germany, at a Temperance Society meeting, the subjoined sentiment was given by the President—the Rev Von Shorenstein.

The following is a translation:—

SENTIMENT.

The Philanthropist, Doctor Green, a subject* of Rettingsdorf in the dominions of North America.

The man, whose mind (moved by divine light) first conceived a remedy for intemperance.

Whose writings first enlightened America on the subject and awoke into life our European Temperance Societies.

Let the Christian hand (Chrisliche hande) be extended to this man throughout Christendom.

Rev Von Shoresntein, President.

The translator will consider it necessary to explain and state, that Rettingsdorff, in the European German language signifies Reading.

'Tis a city, situated on the river Schuylkill, in Pennsylvania where the Doctor resides who is the originator of what is termed the "Cold Water System," as a remedy for intemperance—and which system gave rise to the Temperance Societies throughout the world.

Reading is a beautiful place, and next to Philadelphia in commerce—containing from 7 to 8000 inhabitants—industrious and wealthy descendants from the great Germanic Nation of Europe.

ADAMS'S PATENT

SWELLED

BEAM

THE subscriber has on hand a good assortment of the Swelled Beam Windlass Bedsteads, which, for comfort and convenience is undoubtedly the best article yet invented; its chief peculiarity is that of the Swelled Beam, the effect of which is to produce a crowning, and elastic sacking, and effectually provides against its saging. They are easily set up or taken down, and may be saved in case of fire as easily as any other piece of furniture, and from its mode of construction less liable to harbor insects than any other kind; but above all its advantages is the ease and comfort obtained from the sacking, by means of its being made and kept elastic by means of the Swelled Beam, (the form of which is exhibited in the above cut.)

Orders thankfully received, and promptly attended to
